> You've seen her at the Oscars, the Grammy Awards, the Golden Globes, and co-hosting E! News alongside Ryan Seacrest, giving us the latest fashion tips, and all the Hollywood scoop. The fabulous Giuliana Rancic was right here in the beautiful Mall at Millenia hosting the mall's 2010 Fall Fashion Week. Aside from her crazy schedule, she took the opportunity to see the true beauty of Orlando and everything that our extraordinary city has to offer.

This is your first time at The Mall at Millenia, how do you like it?

I'm really excited to be here at the mall. I love shopping and this mall is unbelievable, it's off the charts. The stores are amazing. We don't have a mall this good in Los Angeles, which is crazy to me!

What are your favorite trends this season?

I just got the sickest boots at ALDO. They are military looking but with a high heel and a zipper up the front. They're very Alexander McQueen-ish. I love a harder edgier look, like a little black leather jacket with a longer tank top, tight jeans or leggings, and some heavy looking heels.

Who is your favorite designer?

If I had to pick one designer it would be Valentino. Valentino is the epitome of femininity and beauty. I wear a lot of Bebe, BCBG, Maxazria, Forever 21 and H & M. It's important to me to be attainable. Not everyone can afford Gucci, Prada, and Louis Vuitton. My advice is to go into those stores and see the trends they're doing. Then go to Forever 21 and other stores to get an idea because everyone is replicating.

So how does it feel to be in Orlando and NOT go to Disney World?

I actually haven't been to Disney since I was a little girl and the last time I was in Orlando was when I was 10. I have a nightgown that has Mickey and Minnie on it that I still wear. It's actually in the new season of our show!

When does the season start?

October 11th. When we started the show, Giuliana and Bill, we thought it was going to be about our long distance marriage. We were going to get pregnant, move into a house, and have a kid. That didn't happen. We've been trying to get pregnant for a long time and I never thought I would have a problem. To be told at 35 that I have "mature eggs," I thought, "What are you talking about?" I really want to talk about it in the show to other women who can learn from my experiences.

And you have a book coming out?

We have a book coming out called, "I Do, Now What?" There is a lot involved in the first couple of years of marriage so Bill and I sat down and wrote a book all about it hoping to give couples advice to use.

So how has your Orlando adult experience been?

Downtown is super cool. There are so many places to go and I can't narrow them down! I know there's a really great lounge a lot of people go to, I heard about some great restaurants, the shopping is amazing, and the nightlife is great. I don't even think about going to the theme parks anymore, I just want to go to the city and have fun! <
