

Sunday in the Park

By: Dana Damato

Read more at:
StyleToMe.com

> The sun is out and the skies are cloudless and blue. The air is cool with no precipitation and the temperature is just right. The atmosphere is upbeat and energizing as you take in a deep breath and stroll down the old and historic brick roads of Winter Park. You enjoy watching people walk their dogs, riding their bikes, couples holding hands, families laughing, college students on their notebook/computers wired on a strong cup of joe at Starbucks, and photographers taking pictures of the undeniable beauty of the area. You walk down the sidewalk on a perfect day and can't decide whether you want to grab a book and sit under a shady tree facing a beautiful fountain or get together with some friends to enjoy a crisp glass of Pinot Grigio at a quaint bistro. The luxuries of Park Avenue's divine dining, upscale shopping, and breathtaking scenery leaves no question as to what your perfect Sunday afternoon should entail.

Perhaps your idea of winding down and relaxing involves meeting up with friends after a morning of tennis or golf to enjoy a glass of wine and a light lunch. Stop by the Wine Room on Park Avenue. The Wine Room offers everything from a remarkable champagne bar to wine classes. They even offer personal wine lockers for storage. Your experience at the Wine Room will be a pleasurable one as you enjoy various wine and cheese assortments. Your options are endless at any one of Park Avenue's specialty restaurants and bistros. Choices include a delicious Sunday brunch at 310 Park South. Relax and enjoy their award winning "New American" cuisine with a personal touch.

“ PARK AVENUE'S SHOPPING IS AS DIVERSE AS ITS MANY DINING VENUES. WITH ITS EXQUISITE BOUTIQUES, JEWELERS, SALONS, AND SPAS, WHICH ARE, OPEN EVERY SUNDAY FOR YOUR CONVENIENCE. ”

Also, new to Park Avenue is Nelore Churrascaria, a fine Brazilian steakhouse offering an extensive salad bar with more than 40 hot & cold dishes made from scratch. Soups, a variety of fresh salads and vegetables, rare cheese, fine meats and so much more. Try and pair any of these with a perfect glass of wine from their Wine Spectator award-winning wine list. You can also dine outside along Winter Park's oldest shopping districts at Spice Modern Steakhouse, which has a trendy style and exquisite, one of a kind cuisine that offers entrees such as Guinness

Fried Oysters and Sage Cider Wild Boar Chops. If a lighter brunch is more fitting for your mood, Park Plaza Gardens offers 30 years of exceptional food and service. You can enjoy a brunch with menu items that include appetizers, salads, sandwiches and entrees, pair it with one of their signature martinis or a glass of wine from their outstanding imported and domestic wine selections from California, Washington, France and Italy.

Park Avenue's shopping is as diverse as its many dining venues. With its exquisite boutiques, jewelers, salons, and spas, which are open every Sunday for your convenience. Boutiques include the stylish trends of Tuni, Thread, Bella, Nicole Miller and many more. If grabbing a pair of sneakers and your iPod for an energizing run is what you're in the mood for, then Park Avenue's picturesque park is perfect for a brisk walk or jog. Whether your idea of a perfect Sunday consists of sitting on a little table on the sidewalk with good company and good wine, or a quiet afternoon lounged under a shady tree in the park with a good book, Park Avenue continues to serve Winter Park as a well known environment for enjoying culture, art, food, and shopping.<